

LITTLE ROSE ACADEMY HIGH SCHOOL

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

CLASS: 10th

STORY/ PARAGRAPH/ ARTICLE WRITING

{NOTE: WRITE IN YOUR OWN WORDS USING HINTS}

Q1. Write a short, meaningful story based on the outline given below. Also, give it a suitable title and write its moral.

HINTS: A shepherd boy takes his sheep to the hills every day..... gets bored and wants to play a trick..... screams loudly, "Wolf! Wolf! Help!"..... villagers stop their work and run to save him..... they find no wolf..... boy laughs at them for being fooled..... villagers get angry and leave..... few days later, a real wolf comes out of the forest..... boy gets terrified and cries out for help desperately..... villagers hear him but think he is lying again..... nobody comes to save him..... wolf kills many sheep.

Q2. Write a paragraph of about 80 to 100 words on the topic "An Educational Tour to Mansar Lake". Use the hints given below to develop your paragraph.

HINTS: School organized a trip — weekend — beautiful weather — arrived by school bus — surrounded by green hills — saw tortoises and fish in the lake — visited the ancient temples — boat riding with classmates — delicious lunch — fun games and photography — returning home with wonderful memories and knowledge.

Q3. You are Sahil/Sana. Write an article for your school magazine on the topic "The Benefits of Reading Books". Use the clues provided below to write your article.

Hints:

- Enhances knowledge and improves vocabulary
- Reduces stress and relaxes the mind
- Improves concentration, memory, and thinking power
- A great companion — reduces excessive screen time
- Inspires creativity and builds good character