CHIKU'S BRAVE FLIGHT

Once upon a time, a tiny bird named Chiku lived in a big mango tree. Chiku was very scared of flying. One sunny morning, his friends were playing high in the sky, and some other birds were eating ripe guavas from a distant tree.

His mother gently pushed him from the branch, saying, "Trust your wings, Chiku!" Chiku took a deep breath and flapped as hard as he could. He was flying! He felt so happy as he joined his friends. He learned that being brave can take you to new heights.

★ MORAL: BE BRAVE, AND YOU CAN FLY HIGH. ★
